

Elaine Gray

Elaine Gray is partner and head of the dispute resolution and litigation team of Carey Olsen in Guernsey. She advises both local and international clients on a range of dispute resolution and litigation matters including trust disputes, fraud and asset tracing matters, banking and finance litigation, regulatory, employment, data protection and intellectual property (IP) matters. She is recognised as a leading lawyer in these fields and appears regularly in courts and tribunals at all levels in Guernsey.

Elaine is a member of both the Association of Contentious Trust and Probate Specialists (ACTAPS) and The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb). She is also a member of the Population Employment Advisory Panel as representative of Guernsey's financial service industry and a qualified Data Protection Practitioner. Elaine has been named as a leading lawyer in the Citywealth Leaders Lists each year from 2009 to 2018. She is also an adviser to the IP Commercial Group established by Guernsey's IP Registrar.

Elaine qualified as a Scottish solicitor and notary public in 1995, before moving to the Cayman Islands in 2004 where she was admitted as an attorney-at-law. She then qualified as a solicitor in England in 2008 and was admitted as an advocate of the Royal Court of Guernsey in 2009. Elaine is a registered Image Rights Agent and Bailiwick Patent Agent and also lectures on employment law to the College of Further Education in Guernsey. She was made a partner at Carey Olsen in 2015.
