

Keith Kelliher

Keith Kelliher is the owner of Kelliher and Associates Quantity Surveyors a quantity surveying and dispute resolution consultancy based in Dublin, Ireland. Keith is a Quantity Surveyor by profession who specializes in construction and commercial dispute resolution. Keith is the current Chair of the CI Arb Ireland Branch having previously held the positions of Vice Chair, PRO, Education and Training officer and Chair of the YMG.

Keith is an active trainer in ADR and is the current CI Arb Regional Pathway Leader for Mediation and Adjudication in Ireland. A member of the Approved Faculty List, Keith has tutored in the areas of Arbitration, Mediation and Adjudication for the CI Arb, Law Society and with the Construction Industry Federation and to various other private bodies. Keith has recently been appointed to the Education and Membership standing committee of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators worldwide.

Keith is an active dispute resolver and has appointments as an Arbitrator, Conciliator, Adjudicator (Accredited Adjudicator) and Mediator (Accredited Mediator) of construction and commercial disputes. Keith has also sat as Mediator in school disputes and many occasions in management company and apartment complex disputes.

Keith has also acted and provided advice as an expert witness and regularly advises in respect to Construction Contract Issues. Keith has also extensive experience in the Insurance industry having spent time as a loss adjuster on property damage and commercial policy claims. In addition to his work with the CI Arb, Keith is also a member of the executive council of the Mediator's Institute of Ireland. Keith is the CI Arb appointee to current discussions taking place in Ireland across the mediation community around the creation of a new Mediation Council to regulate the mediation Industry in Ireland under the Mediation Act 2017.